Ahern and Associates Aids Total Transportation Services In Securing Three Additional Agent Agreements

Dallas based Total Transportation Services, LLC relies on Ahern and Associates to once again secure successful agent partnership programs within the trucking and logistics industry.

Phoenix, AZ, June 15, 2009—Ahern and Associates secures a third agent agreement on behalf of Total Transportation Services, LLC further demonstrating why they are widely recognized as the North American leader in the fields of trucking company mergers and acquisitions within the trucking and transportation industry.

Trucking companies throughout the U.S. and Canada have learned over the years that the business of add-on acquisitions is often times a risk laden proposition. By securing the professional services of a transportation and trucking company management consulting firm like Ahern and Associates, participants of these transactions are better able to avoid costly pitfalls and establish successful agent development programs.

Dennis Farnsworth, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Total Transportation Services, LLC, explains why they repeatedly trust Ahern and Associates to handle their agent development programs including their three most recent transactions: “Andy Ahern and his staff’s knowledge base and contacts in the transportation industry are a valuable resource to both buyers and sellers. Ahern and Associates continuously demonstrates a commitment to serving their customers with high quality service.”

Having already boosted Total Transportation Services’ revenue by 70 million dollars within one year, the casual observer might think that the experienced staff at Ahern and Associates is satisfied. Not exactly, trumps A.W. Ahern, CEO of Ahern and Associates, “Just because we’ve closed a few deals for a particular client doesn’t mean we’re done. Through our broad base of trusted contacts within the logistics and trucking industries, my staff and I are continually seeking out opportunities that make not only make economic sense for our clients, but also produce a profit.”
